Article I—Name

The name of this association is the North Star Elementary Parents and Teacher Association (PTA), Hockessin, Delaware. It is a local PTA organized under the authority of Delaware Congress of Parents and Teachers, Inc. (Delaware PTA), a branch of National Congress of Parents and Teachers (National PTA).

Article II—Purposes

Section 1. The purposes of the PTA are:

- a. To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, places of worship, and throughout the community;
- b. To raise the standards of home life;
- c. To advocate for laws that further the education, physical and mental health, welfare, and safety of children and youth;
- d. To promote the collaboration and engagement of families and educators in the education of children and youth;
- e. To engage the public in united efforts to secure the physical, mental, emotional, spiritual, and social well-being of all children and youth; and
- f. To advocate for fiscal responsibility regarding public tax dollars in public education funding.

Section 2. The purposes of the PTA are promoted through advocacy and educational programs directed toward parents, teachers, and the general public; developed through conferences, committees, projects, and programs; and governed and qualified by the basic policies set forth in Article III.

Section 3. The association is organized exclusively for the charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code (hereinafter referred to as “Internal Revenue Code”).

Article III—Basic Policies

The following are basic policies of the North Star Elementary PTA:

- a. The association shall be noncommercial, nonsectarian, and nonpartisan.
- b. The association shall work with the schools and community to provide quality education for all children and youth, and shall seek to participate in the decision-making process.
- c. The association or members in their official capacities shall not, directly or indirectly, participate or intervene (in any way, including the publishing or distributing of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office; or devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise.
- d. The association shall work with the districts and school to provide quality education for all children and youth and shall be informed and participate in the decision making process establishing education policy, recognizing the legal responsibility to make decisions has been delegated by the people to all educational and legislative authorities.

- e. No part of the net earnings of the association shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, trustees, officers, or other private individuals except that the association shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof.
- f. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the association shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by an association exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code or (ii) by an association, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- g. Upon the dissolution of a local unit PTA unit in Delaware, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the unit, the remaining financial assets will be turned over to the Delaware PTA. The Delaware PTA Executive Committee will set aside the funds for possible reinstatement of the dissolving unit. If said unit is not reinstated as a PTA unit within 18 months of the date of dissolution, the Delaware PTA Executive Committee may use the funds for the benefit of the remaining PTA units in the same region that the dissolved PTA unit was located in. The dissolving PTA unit will also file a final 990 with the IRS, marked as final, and provide the state association with proof of filing. All additional assets and materials shall be turned over to the state association.

In compliance with the State of Delaware Non Profit laws, dissolving local units are required to:

- Contact current accounts associated with their EIN and close them immediately. This includes accounts with other associations such as Box Tops, General Mills, Target, Kohl's, etc. that make use of the PTA name or EIN number.
- Per IRS requirements, file a final 990-N form. Per IRS instructions, be sure to answer "YES" to the question "Has your association terminated or gone out of business?" You must include a completed Schedule N (Liquidation, Termination, Dissolution, or Significant Disposition of Assets), as well as copies of your certificate of dissolution.
- The directors must file a certificate of dissolution with Delaware's Secretary of State in accordance with Section 275 of the DGCL. The certificate must state the name of the corporation, the date the dissolution was authorized, and the names and addresses of all directors. The certificate should also confirm that all members, if applicable, have agreed to the dissolution.
- The new parent group may be subject to taxation on all revenue/income unless and until they apply for their own EIN with the IRS. Note: No PTA funds may be used in the application for a new EIN or setup of a new organization.
- All remaining physical assets, such as equipment or supplies, will need to be turned over to the Delaware PTA, as is required by state law as directed by the Delaware PTA Uniform Bylaws for Local Units which contain specific instructions on the disbursement of any assets of a local PTA at the time it is dissolved.
- PTA® is a registered service mark of the National PTA, registration number 808987, issued May 24, 1966. This registration issued by the federal government may not be used by associations that are not affiliated with the National Congress of Parents and Teachers or the Delaware PTA. All dissolving units must cease using the PTA name and/or logo immediately on any of association materials or websites affiliated with the dissolving group.

- h. Theft in a local unit is defined as the intentional misuse, misappropriation and/or mismanagement of local unit funds that results in personal financial gain. Fraud is defined as the intentional misrepresentation, wrongful or criminal deception intended to result in personal or financial gain. Under-reporting membership is an example of fraud.

Upon notification, confirmation or suspicion of theft or fraud, North Star PTA shall notify Delaware PTA. Delaware PTA will provide information and guidance to ensure proper steps are taken to:

- Report theft/fraud to the local authorities
- Report theft/fraud to applicable insurance company
- Provide additional training and guidance to the local unit on treasury and other management issues.
- Upon request of the local unit, assist with PR in the school and school community
- Provide local unit with guidance on obtaining an independent audit.

Article IV—Relationship with National PTA and Delaware PTA

Section 1. This local PTA shall be organized and chartered under the authority of the Delaware PTA in the area in which this local PTA functions, in conformity with such rules and regulations, as the Delaware PTA may in its bylaws prescribe. The Delaware PTA shall issue to this local PTA an appropriate charter evidencing the due organization and good standing of this local PTA. (State may establish their own “good standing” policy)

A local PTA in good standing is one that

- a. Adheres to the purposes and basic policies of the PTA;
- b. Remits the state and national portion of the dues through the Delaware PTA by scheduled deadlines;
- c. Reports officers and contact information by deadline set and advertised by Delaware PTA;
- d. Annually files a copy of the IRS reporting form; audit report, final budget for the most recently completed school year, and a copy of the annual financial report to the Delaware PTA;

- j. Provides Delaware PTA the Power of Attorney (IRS form 8821) to speak on their behalf to IRS; and
- k. Meets other criteria as may be prescribed by the Delaware PTA.

Section 2. This local PTA shall adopt such bylaws for the government of the association as may be approved by the Delaware PTA. Such bylaws shall not be in conflict with National PTA Bylaws or the bylaws of Delaware PTA.

Section 3. Bylaws of this local PTA shall include an article on amendments.

Section 4. Bylaws of this local PTA shall include a provision establishing a quorum.

Section 5. Each officer or executive committee member of this local PTA shall be a member of this local PTA.

Section 6. Members of the executive committee are prohibited from voting by proxy.

Section 7. Only members of this local PTA who have paid dues for the current membership year may participate in the business of this local PTA.

Section 8. The charter of this local PTA shall be subject to withdrawal and the status of such association as a local PTA shall be subject to termination, in the manner and under the circumstances provided in the bylaws of the Delaware PTA and Article III Section g of the local unit bylaws.

Article V—Membership and Dues

Section 1. Every individual who is a member of this local PTA is, by virtue of that fact, a member of the National PTA and of the Delaware PTA by which this local PTA is chartered, and is entitled to all the benefits of such membership.

Section 2. Each member of this local PTA shall pay annual dues to said association. The amount of such annual dues shall include the portion payable to the Delaware PTA and the portion payable to National PTA.

Section 3. This local PTA shall conduct an annual enrollment of members but may admit individuals to membership at any time.

Section 4. The PTA membership year shall be from July 1st through June 30th

Article VI—Officers

Section 1. The elected officers of this local PTA shall be a president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer.

Section 2. Officers shall be elected in the month of May.

Section 3. When there is more than one candidate for any office, the vote shall be conducted by ballot during in-person meetings or by polling methods during virtual meetings and a majority vote shall elect. When there is only one candidate for any office, that election may be held by voice vote during in-person meetings or may be held by electronic voting methods during virtual meetings.

Section 4. The following provisions shall govern the eligibility of individuals to be officers of the North Star Elementary PTA:

- a. Each officer shall be a member of this local PTA.
- b. No officer may be eligible to serve more than two (2) consecutive terms in the same office, (refer to Article VI – Section 5 for length of terms). EXCEPTION: An individual may be elected to a third term only if no new candidates are available for a position, despite all efforts to seek and name new individuals to the ballot through the date of May elections.
- c. A person who has served in an office for more than one half of a full term shall be deemed to have served a full term in such office.

Section 5. Officers shall assume their official duties on the first day of the new fiscal year July 1, in which they are elected and shall serve for a term of two (2) years or until their successors are elected. Open elections for all positions must be held at the end of every term (i.e., every two years).

Section 6. A vacancy occurring in the office of president shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by the vice president. A vacancy in any office other than president shall be filled by a majority vote of the executive committee.

Section 7. There shall be a nominating committee composed of three (3) members who shall be elected by this local PTA at a regular general membership meeting at least one (1) month prior to the election of officers, as outlined in Article VI, Section 2.

- a. The committee shall elect its chair.
- b. The nominating committee shall nominate an eligible person for each office to be filled and report its nominees at the regular general membership meeting in May, at which time additional nominations may be made from the floor.
- c. Only those individuals who are current members of this local PTA and who have signified their consent to serve if elected shall be nominated for, or elected to, such office.

Article VII—Duties of Officers
